DATED; 28TH JUNE, 2007

P.C.;

1. An order refusing to grant ad-interim ex-parte relief has been challenged by filing the appeal from order. The impugned order is dated 14-5-2007. The motion is now fixed for hearing on 8th July 2007. The learned counsel for the appellant submits that he apprehends that the final decision on the motion may be delayed and thus seeks a limited indulgence by this court in securing an early disposal of the motion. It is submitted that the trial court be directed to dispose of the motion within a period of three weeks from today. The learned counsel for the respondent nos.1 and 2 has no objectioon for early disposal of the motion and he submits that the respondent nos. 1 and 2 will co-operate for an early disposal. In this view of the matter the learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the present appeal. Thus it is disposed of as not pressed. I hope and trust that the trial court will dispose of the motion as early as possible preferably in four weeks from today.

2. In view of the disposal of the A.O. civil application does not survive and it is disposed of as such.

3. The learned counsel for the appellant submits that the appellant also proposes to file an amendment application, the same also be disposed of as expeditiously as possible.
